NO HELP IN THE MIRROR

After the flood, humanity was scared, and rightly so. They had strayed so far from God's grace that He was forced to exercise His judicial prerogative. They were afraid of another flood and so they sought safety and comfort. So to whom did they turn? To themselves. They looked in the mirror and said, "You're handsome, you're smart, you be your own saviour." They then began to build the tower of Babel, and we all know how that turned out (Gen. 11).

Today, humanity is scared once again. We see the damage we have done to the earth, and we are nervous for the future. So where has man turned? To himself. He has looked in the mirror and been seduced by his own reflection. Humanity tries to secure its future by waving its magic wands of science, philosophy, and false religion. But that path will end in disaster just like last time.

So what is the answer? The answer is not a what, but a Who. Let us "not look to self, but to Christ. He who healed the sick and cast out demons when He walked among men is still the same mighty Redeemer" MH 65. Christ still has His Creator power. He can still heal the sick or make the sun stand still. He can solve your personal problems as well as man's rapid race toward self-extinction. All we need to do is believe in Him. All you need to do is follow Him. Will you trust your life to your loving Creator, or follow the fool in the mirror?

"Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." John 8:12.
