There is nothing cuter, nothing that makes your heart burst with happiness, than seeing your toddler trying to follow in their parents footsteps. Little boys trailing behind dad and walking just like him. Little girls trying to put on makeup just like mum. Little boys dressing like dad and yelling at the football match on TV... just like dad. Little girls having a doll's tea party and being all kind and polite just like they've seen mum do. It is both joyful and humbling to see your little ones trying to be just like you.

Jesus' heart also sings when He sees that, in our earnest love, we try to be just like Him. "Christ is pleased with His followers when they show that, though human, they are partakers of the divine nature" MYP 404. And just as we are patient with our tiny tots, Christ does not expect miracles from us first time around. Just seeing our earnest desire and unrelenting persistence in trying to be just like Him, is enough to make His father's heart proud.

So be patient with yourself. Don't get distracted. Study your heavenly Father so you may copy Him more closely. While He was here on earth Jesus took little steps so that we with our little legs might be able to stretch and follow in His footsteps.

"Whoever says they abide in Him ought to walk in the same way in which He walked." 1 John 2:6.
