AIMING TO BE ODD!

Bob was in the city when he saw a homeless man shivering. Bob gave the man his $300 jacket and $20 for a hot meal. How peculiar!

Jane went to a concert with friends where everyone was dressed very risqué. Jane's outfit was pretty but modest. How peculiar!

Ed was waiting for a parking spot when a 'P' plater came and stole his spot and gave Ed the 'bird.' Ed just smiled and waved. How peculiar!

Sam was absorbed in a paper he was writing for work when his son wanted to show him a fort he had made. Sam got up and followed his son. How peculiar!

Sue was at a hen's night when they brought out the alcohol and male stripper. Sue gave her friend a gift and excused herself. How peculiar!

Mike's work colleague took all the credit for a project Mike had done most of the work on. Mike clapped the loudest. How peculiar!

Ian is one of six kids. He accidentally broke his mother's prize vase. When Mum interrogated the children, Ian told the truth. How peculiar!

"Those who serve God in sincerity and truth will be a peculiar people, unlike the world, separate from the world" MCP 2:378.

If a Christian is supposed to stand out, and we find Christian joy in being 'odd,' then why do we try so hard to fit in to this world's expectations?

"But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own peculiar people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvellous light." 1 Peter 2:9.
